

Tuesday, 01 April 2014

The Day & Ross Transportation Group Maintains Its Platinum Club Member Status with Canada's Best Managed Companies Program

"Thinking like one of Canada's Best Companies is surprisingly simple. That's why it is so hard." That's how Deloitte Canada is defining the program and celebrating this year's winners.

Simplicity, discipline, and focus. That is how The Day & Ross Transportation Group has responded to challenges encompassing the following categories:

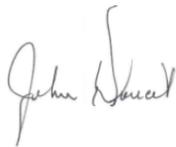

- ❖ Strategy
- ❖ Leadership
- ❖ Globalization
- ❖ Raising Capital
- ❖ Mergers and Acquisitions
- ❖ Innovation
- ❖ Attracting Talent
- ❖ Productivity

The Financial Post published the official announcement of the new and re-qualified winners on March 25, 2014. The Platinum Membership is restricted to the elite corps of organizations who have been Best Managed Companies for seven consecutive years or more.

The Canada's Best Managed Companies program recognizes organizations setting the highest standards of business performance. Now in its 21st year, the Canada's Best Managed Companies designation symbolizes Canadian corporate success: companies like Day & Ross focused on their core vision, creating stakeholder value, and excelling in the global economy.

This designation would not have been possible without the personal contribution of all our employees, owner operators, and management staff.

Sincerely,

John Doucet
President & CEO